

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO

IN RE:)	Chapter 7
)
Raymond J. Haun)	Case No. 20-60554
Barbara L. Haun)
)
Debtors)	Judge Russ Kendig

DEBTORS' MOTION TO EXCUSE PRE-DISCHARGE FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT COUNSELING FOR DECEASED DEBTOR

1. Now come Debtors, through counsel, and request this Court enter an order excusing the requirement for the pre-discharge financial management counseling certificate to be filed for Debtor Husband, who is now deceased.
2. The Chapter 7 Bankruptcy was filed on March 23, 2020, and Debtor husband passed away on April 1, 2020.
3. The Bankruptcy Code allows the court to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.”
11 U.S.C. §105(a).
4. This provision allows the court to issue rulings to prevent an abuse of process so as to coincide with the congressional intent, when such sections were written.
5. The requirements of the pre-discharge financial management counseling should not apply to a debtor who is “unable to complete those requirements because of incapacity, disability, or active military duty in a military combat zone.”
11 U.S.C. §109(h)(4).
6. Such a case exists here, where Debtor husband is unable to complete the requirements due to incapacity and disability.
7. Debtor husband passed away nine days after the case was filed.

8. The purpose of imposing financial management counseling requirement is to aid debtor in their financial choices after the bankruptcy is discharged.
9. Due to the fact that the Debtor husband is now deceased, the purpose for completing the financial management course is void.

WHEREFORE, Debtors pray for an order excusing the financial management counseling certificate requirement for deceased Debtor husband.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Debra E. Booher
